

Que me falte todo (May I lack everything)

In my process everyone left.
In my desperation, those who were there fled.
I thought that I would be alone and everything would end,
That it would be my end.

But in the process I could understand
That the love of God never ends.
He told me that He would be with me
And that His Presence would accompany me.
May I lack everything, except for His Presence.
May everyone leave except for the Holy Spirit.
May they take everything from me,
But they will never be able to achieve
That I would stop worshiping and glorifying.

Now I don't feel alone.
His love accompanies me day and night.

He promised to be with me until the end.
I will not doubt His love. He is my faithful friend.
In my weakness He will sustain me.
His Spirit gives me strength. He goes with me.
